EAGLE LAKE "NURSERIES

EAGLE LAKE, TEXAS.

JUL 21 1920

U. S. Department of Agriculture

Owing to war conditions, labor shortage and drought, all nurseries have been compelled to advance prices. All previous catalog quotations are therefore hereby cancelled.

However, we have endeavored to keep prices as low as possible and you will find them lower than any other reliable nursery, quality and grade of trees and plants considered.

The Eagle Lake Nurseries strive to please customers, as we find that satisfied customers are our best advertisement.

If you have any of our previous catalogs, we kindly ask you to refer to same for detailed description of trees and plants.

Economy being the watchword, we will not issue any new catalog for the early 1919 season. This saving will go to our customers, as you will note a saving of from 5 to 15c on all fruit trees and other trees and plants in like proportion.

We will give your order our personal attention, as we want you to be more than satisfied—pleased—when you get your purchases from The Eagle Lake Nurseries.
